24/7 First Nations and Inuit Hope for Wellness Line

The First Nations and Inuit Hope for Wellness Help Line began taking calls 24/7 as of September 21, 2016. The toll-free phone number for the line is 1-855-242-3310. This information will be posted on our First Nations and Inuit Health Branch website as well as being shared through social media in the very near future. The purpose of the Help Line is to provide immediate culturally competent telephone-based crisis intervention counselling to First Nations and Inuit young people and adults experiencing distress. Help Line calls will be answered by experienced crisis Intervention counsellors, and service will be available in English and French. Callers may also ask about the availability of service in Cree, Ojibway and Inuktitut. Work will continue regarding how best to further promote the Help Line.

AES Door-to Door Campaign
Restoration of Jurisdiction Department
Union of Ontario Indians

The Union of Ontario Indians Restoration of Jurisdiction department has developed a community-based Door-to Door Campaign as part of its ratification activities. The objectives of this campaign are to inform voters about the benefits of the Education Agreement, to ask voters whether they received their mail-in ballot, to inform voters where to vote in person, and to measure community support for the Education Agreement. Ideally, each community participating in the Ratification Vote will have two Team Leads.

$$ This is a paid Contract $$

Looking for Two Team Leads

Organizing dates for canvassing (between Nov 7 to Nov 18)

If Interested please Contact
