24/7 First Nations and Inuit Hope for Wellness Line

The First Nations and Inuit Hope for Wellness Help Line began taking calls 24/7 as of September 21, 2016. The toll-free phone number for the line is 1-855-242-3310. This information will be posted on our First Nations and Inuit Health Branch website as well as being shared through social media in the very near future. The purpose of the Help Line is to provide immediate culturally competent telephone-based crisis intervention counselling to First Nations and Inuit young people and adults experiencing distress. Help Line calls will be answered by experienced crisis Intervention counsellors, and service will be available in English and French. Callers may also ask about the availability of service in Cree, Ojibway and Inuktitut. Work will continue regarding how best to further promote the Help Line.
